ICT Departmental Structure

Ed Franklin
ICT Director

The Director of ICT primary responsibility is to develop and maintain an ICT Department of excellence, which supports the Authorities vision and aims.

Mark Hulme Applications Manager

The Integration & Development Manager - Application's primary responsibility is to plan, coordinate & deliver the processes required for the provision of application life cycle management and interface lifecycle management

Bernie Kenny Infrastructure Manager

The Integration & Development Manager – Infrastructure's primary responsibility is to supervise and ensure the efficient delivery of the company's ICT Infrastructure & services to meet business

Lesley Hollis Support Analyst

The Integration & Development Support Analyst works closely with all departments and where required provide or be a point of escalation for system administration, training and application support.

telent

Strategic partner responsible for the management & ongoing development of the Authorities ICT Infrastructure.

This Covers:

• MACC
• Admin Infrastructure
• Service Desk
• Manage Desktop & Servers
• Professional Services

Merseyside FIRE & RESCUE SERVICE