TOXTETH FIREFIT HUB

1. Objects

1.1 The Objects of the Charity which are for the public benefit and are specifically restricted to the following:

1.1.1 to further or benefit the residents of Toxteth and the neighbourhood and other Districts that the Trustees shall deem appropriate, without distinction of sex, sexual orientation, gender reassignment pregnancy or maternity, race, disability, marriage or civil partnership status or of political, religious or other beliefs by associating together the said residents and the local authorities, voluntary and other organisations in a common effort to advance education and to provide facilities in the interests of social welfare for recreation leisure time occupation with the objective of improving the conditions of life for the residents.

1.1.2 To act as a resource for young people up to the age of twenty five living primarily in the Toxteth area of Liverpool and otherwise the Northwest by providing or facilitating the provision of advice and assistance and organising programmes of physical, educational and other activities as a means of:

advancing in life and helping young people by developing their skills, capacities and capabilities to enable them to participate in society as independent, mature and responsible individuals;

advancing education;

relieving unemployment;

1.2 This provision may be amended by special resolution but only with the prior written consent of the Commission.

2. Powers

The Charity has the following powers, which may be exercised only in promoting or assisting the promotion of the Objects:

2.1 to provide advice or information;

- 2.2 to promote and carry out research;
- 2.3 to co-operate with other bodies;
- 2.4 to acquire, merge or enter into partnership, consortium or joint venture arrangement with any other charity formed for any of the Objects, or any other body, for the purpose of fulfilling the Objects
- 2.5 to support, administer or set up other charities;
- 2.6 to accept gifts and to raise funds (but not by means of taxable trading);
- 2.7 to borrow money;
- 2.8 to give security for loans or other obligations (but only in accordance with the restrictions imposed by the Charities Act);
- 2.9 to acquire or hire property of any kind;
- 2.10 to let or dispose of property of any kind (but only in accordance with the restrictions imposed by the Charities Act);
- 2.11 to set aside funds for special purposes or as reserves against future expenditure;
- 2.12 to deposit or invest its funds in any manner (but to invest only after obtaining such advice from a financial expert as the Trustees consider necessary and having regard to the suitability of investments and the need for diversification);
- 2.13 to delegate the management of investments to a financial expert, but only on terms that:
 - 2.13.1 the investment policy is set down in writing for the financial expert by the Trustees;
 - 2.13.2 timely reports of all transactions are provided to the Trustees;
 - 2.13.3 the performance of the investments is reviewed regularly with the Trustees;
 - 2.13.4 the Trustees are entitled to cancel the delegation arrangement at any time;
 - 2.13.5 the investment policy and the delegation arrangement are reviewed at least once a year;
 - 2.13.6 all payments due to the financial expert are on a scale or at a level which is agreed in advance and are notified promptly to the Trustees on receipt; and
 - 2.13.7 the financial expert must not do anything outside the powers of the Charity;

- 2.14 to arrange for investments or other property of the Charity to be held in the name of a nominee company acting under the direction of the Trustees or controlled by a financial expert acting under their instructions, and to pay any reasonable fee required;
- 2.15 to deposit documents and physical assets with any company registered or having a place of business in England or Wales as custodian, and to pay any reasonable fee required;
- 2.16 to insure the property of the Charity against any foreseeable risk and take out other insurance policies to protect the Charity when required;
- 2.17 subject to Article 6.3, to employ paid or unpaid agents, staff or advisers;
- 2.18 to enter into contracts to provide services to or on behalf of other bodies;
- 2.19 to establish or acquire subsidiary companies;
- 2.20 to do anything else within the law which promotes or helps to promote the Objects.

3 The Trustees

- 3.1 The Trustees as charity trustees have control of the Charity and its property and funds.
- 3.2 The subscribers to the Memorandum (with the exception of The Merseyside Fire and Rescue Authority)(being the first Members) are also the first Trustees. Subsequent Trustees are appointed by the Appointing Bodies, nominated by The Young Persons Advisory Group or co-opted by the Trustees. All Trustees shall resign at the conclusion of the first AGM following incorporation. Periods of Trusteeship shall be calculated from AGM's.
- 3.3 The Trustees when complete consist of at least 3 and not more than 9, however if there are co-opted trustees in office then there shall be up to 12 (unless the Trustees shall have determined an alternative number by ordinary resolution of the Board) persons who being individuals are over the age of 16, all of whom must support the Objects.
- 3.4 After the initial appointments or nominations all Trustees are appointed or nominated from the first AGM and (other than co-opted Trustees, but including appointed or nominated Trustees) are appointed for a term of 1, 2, or 3 years, so that there shall be one third of their number retiring at each subsequent AGM. At all further AGM's appointments shall be for a term of 3 years. Each Trustee maybe re-elected or re-nominated for further terms of office. Those in office for equal terms of office shall draw straws to determine who shall retire first.

- 3.5 Trustees shall be subject to retirement by rotation. Appointed Trustees shall be eligible for appointment because of a special qualification which shall include: experience in finance; or experience in buildings/facilities management; or experience in marketing; or experience in IT, or experience in human resource management or health and safety issues; or experience in legal matters or experience in accountancy or have relevant local community experience or have relevant educational experience. Appointing bodies shall be advised by the Charity as to what skill set they must select when making an appointment. Any appointment made which does not comply with the skill set requirement shall be null and void. The Trustees determination as to whether an appointed Trustee posses the requisite skill set shall be final. If an appointee fails to meet this requirement, then the appointing body may make a further selection to fill the vacancy.
- 3.6 Up to 3 Trustees shall be nominated to replace retiring nominated Trustees by The Young Persons Advisory Group. The Young Persons Advisory Group shall meet and determine their nominations according to their own practice and procedures, to be established under the company rules, and notify the Charity 21 days before an AGM of their nominations.
- 3.7 Up to 6 Trustees shall be appointed from the following bodies:
- Plus Dane Group of xxxxxx;
- Riverside of xxxxxx;
- Liverpool Housing Trust of xxxxxx;
- The Merseyside Fire and Rescue Authority of Service Headquarters, Bridle Road, Bootle L30 4YD;
- Liverpool Community College of xxxx
- 3.8 A Trustee may not act as a Trustee unless he / she:
- 3.8.1 is a Member; and
- 3.8.2 has signed a written declaration of willingness to act as a charity trustee of the Charity.

Once nominated or co-opted as a Trustee that person shall immediately apply to the Trustees for membership, and a person Appointed shall as soon as appointed apply for membership to enable them to take up office.

- 3.9 The Trustees may at any time co-opt any individual who is eligible under Article 3.10 as a Trustee to fill a vacancy in their number or as an additional Trustee, but a co-opted Trustee holds office only until the next AGM. No more than 3 Trustees maybe appointed between AGM's under this provision, and any appointments are in addition to any maximum number of Trustees prescribed in article 3.5 (i.e. 9) or by the Board from time to time.

- 3.10 A Trustee's term of office as such automatically terminates if he/she:
- 3.10.1 is disqualified under the Charities Act from acting as a charity trustee;
 - 3.10.2 is incapable, whether mentally or physically, of managing his/her own affairs;
 - 3.10.3 is absent without permission from two consecutive meetings of the Trustees and is asked by a majority of the other Trustees to resign;
 - 3.10.4 resigns by written notice to the Trustees (but only if at least two Trustees will remain in office); or
 - 3.10.5 is removed by the Trustees at a meeting by a simple majority resolution because the Trustees conclude that person is no longer suitable to hold office either because of their actions or behaviour or for some other substantial and proper reason in the interests of the charity, provided that any Trustee subject to such a proposal shall be entitled to make representations in writing or in person or both before the Trustees determine such a matter.
- 3.11 A technical defect in the appointment of a Trustee of which the Trustees are unaware at the time does not invalidate decisions taken at a meeting.

4 Trustees' proceedings

- 4.1 The Trustees must hold at least two meetings each year.
- 4.2 A quorum at a meeting of the Trustees is at least two or one third of the Trustees in office, whichever is the greater.
- 4.3 A meeting of the Trustees may be held either in person or by suitable electronic means agreed by the Trustees in which all participants may communicate with all the other participants.
- 4.4 The Chairman or (if the Chair is unable or unwilling to do so) some other Trustee chosen by the Trustees present presides at each meeting.
- 4.5 Any issue may be determined by a simple majority of the votes cast at a meeting, but a resolution in writing agreed by all the Trustees entitled to receive notice of a meeting (other than any Conflicted Trustee who has not been authorised to vote) is as valid as a resolution passed at a meeting. For this purpose the resolution may be contained in more than one document.
- 4.6 Every Trustee has one vote on each issue but, in case of equality of votes, the chair of the meeting has a second or casting vote.
- 4.7 A procedural defect of which the Trustees are unaware at the time does not invalidate decisions taken at a meeting.

5 Trustees' powers

The Trustees have the following powers in the administration of the Charity in their capacity as Trustees:

- 5.1 To appoint (and remove) any person (who may be a Trustee) to act as Secretary in accordance with the Companies Act.
- 5.2 To appoint a Chair from among their number. The Chair will act as such for a term of one year and may be reappointed on the expiration of the said term.
- 5.3 To appoint a Treasurer and other honorary officers from among their number.
- 5.4 To confer on any individual (with his / her consent) the honorary title of Patron, President or Vice-President of the Charity.
- 5.5 To employ a Chief Executive Officer of the Charity, who maybe one individual from among their number.
- 5.6 To delegate any of their functions to committees consisting of two or more individuals appointed by them. At least one member of every committee must be a Trustee and all proceedings of committees must be reported promptly to the Trustees.
- 5.7 To make standing orders consistent with the Memorandum, the Articles and the Companies Act to govern proceedings at general meetings.
- 5.8 To make rules consistent with the Memorandum, the Articles and the Companies Act to govern their proceedings and proceedings of committees.
- 5.9 To make regulations consistent with the Memorandum, the Articles and the Companies Act to govern the administration of the Charity and the use of its seal (if any).
- 5.10 To establish procedures to assist the resolution of disputes or differences within the Charity.
- 5.11 To exercise in their capacity as Trustees any powers of the Charity which are not reserved to them in their capacity as Members.

6 Benefits and Conflicts

- 6.1 The property and funds of the Charity must be used only for promoting the Objects and do not belong to the Members but:
 - 6.1.1 Members (being Trustees) and Connected Persons may be paid interest at a reasonable rate on money lent to the Charity;
 - 6.1.2 Members (being Trustees) and Connected Persons may be paid a reasonable rent or hiring fee for property let or hired to the Charity; and
 - 6.1.3 Members (being Trustees) and Connected Persons may receive charitable benefits on the same terms as any other members of the beneficial class.

- 6.2 A Trustee must not receive any payment of money or other material benefit (whether directly or indirectly) from the Charity except:
- 6.2.1 as mentioned in Articles 5.5, 6.1 or 6.3;
 - 6.2.2 reimbursement of reasonable out-of-pocket expenses (including hotel and travel costs) actually incurred in running the Charity;
 - 6.2.3 the benefit of indemnity insurance as permitted by the Charities Act;
 - 6.2.4 an indemnity in respect of any liabilities properly incurred in running the Charity (including the costs of a successful defence to criminal proceedings);
 - 6.2.5 in exceptional cases, other payments or benefits (but only with the written consent of the Commission in advance and where required by the Companies Act the approval or affirmation of the Members).
- 6.3 No Trustee or Connected Person may be employed by the Charity except in accordance with Articles 5.5 and / or 6.2.5, but any Trustee or Connected Person may enter into a written contract with the Charity, as permitted by the Charities Act, to supply goods or services in return for a payment or other material benefit but only if:
- 6.3.1 the goods or services are actually required by the Charity, and the Trustees decide that it is in the best interests of the Charity to enter into such a contract;
 - 6.3.2 the nature and level of the remuneration is no more than is reasonable in relation to the value of the goods or services and is set in accordance with the procedure in Article 6.4; and
 - 6.3.3 fewer than half of the Trustees are subject to such a contract (or are employed by the Charity) in any financial year.
- 6.4 Subject to Clause 6.5, any Trustee who becomes a Conflicted Trustee in relation to any matter must:
- 6.4.1 declare the nature and extent of his or her interest before discussion begins on the matter;
 - 6.4.2 withdraw from the meeting for that item after providing any information requested by the Trustees;
 - 6.4.3 not be counted in the quorum for that part of the meeting; and
 - 6.4.4 be absent during the vote and have no vote on the matter.
- 6.5 When any Trustee is a Conflicted Trustee, the Trustees who are not Conflicted Trustees, if they form a quorum without counting the Conflicted Trustee and are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the Charity to do so, may by resolution passed in the absence of the Conflicted Trustee authorise the Conflicted Trustee, notwithstanding any conflict of interest or duty which has arisen or may arise for the Conflicted Trustee, to:
- 6.5.1 continue to participate in discussions leading to the making of a decision and / or to vote; or
 - 6.5.2 disclose to a third party information confidential to the Charity; or

- 6.5.3 take any other action not otherwise authorised which does not involve the receipt by the Conflicted Trustee or a Connected Person of any payment or material benefit from the Charity; or
- 6.5.4 refrain from taking any step required to remove the conflict.

6.6 This provision may be amended by special resolution but, where the result would be to permit any material benefit to a Trustee or Connected Person, only with the prior written consent of the Commission.

7 Records and Accounts

7.1 The Trustees must comply with the requirements of the Companies Act and of the Charities Act as to keeping records, the audit or independent examination of accounts and the preparation and transmission to the Registrar of Companies and the Commission of information required by law including:

- 7.1.1 annual returns;
- 7.1.2 annual reports; and
- 7.1.3 annual statements of account.

7.2 The Trustees must also keep records of:

- 7.2.1 all proceedings at meetings of the Trustees;
- 7.2.2 all resolutions in writing;
- 7.2.3 all reports of committees; and
- 7.2.4 all professional advice obtained.

7.3 Accounting records relating to the Charity must be made available for inspection by any Trustee at any time during normal office hours.

7.4 A copy of the Charity's constitution and latest available statement of account must be supplied on request to any Trustee. Copies of the latest accounts must also be supplied in accordance with the Charities Act to any other person who makes a written request and pays the Charity's reasonable costs.

8 Membership

8.1 The Charity must maintain a Register of Members.

8.2 The subscribers to the Memorandum are the first Members.

8.3 Membership is open only to the Trustees and is terminated if the Member concerned ceases to be a Trustee.

8.4 The form and the procedure for applying for Membership is to be prescribed by the Trustees.

8.5 Membership is not transferable.

- 8.6 The Trustees may establish different classes of Members and recognise one or more classes of supporters who are not Members (but who may nevertheless be termed ‘members’) and set out their respective rights and obligations.

9 General Meetings

- 9.1 Trustees in their capacity as Members are entitled to attend general meetings in person or by proxy (but only if the appointment of a proxy is in writing and notified to the Secretary before the commencement of the meeting).
- 9.2 General meetings are called on at least 14 and not more than 28 clear days’ written notice indicating the business to be discussed and (if a special resolution is to be proposed) at least 28 clear days’ written notice setting out the terms of the proposed special resolution.
- 9.3 There is a quorum at a general meeting if the number of Members present in person or by proxy is at least two.
- 9.4 The chair at a general meeting is elected by the Members present in person or by proxy in his / her capacity as a Member and not as proxy for another Member.
- 9.5 Except where otherwise provided by the Articles or the Companies Act, every issue is decided by ordinary resolution.
- 9.6 Every Member present in person or by proxy has one vote on each issue.
- 9.7 Except where otherwise provided by the Articles or the Companies Act, a written resolution (whether an ordinary or a special resolution) is as valid as an equivalent resolution passed at a general meeting. For this purpose the written resolution may be set out in more than one document.
- 9.8 The Charity may (but need not) hold an AGM in any year.
- 9.9 Members being Trustees must annually:
- 9.9.1 receive the accounts of the Charity for the previous financial year;
 - 9.9.2 receive a written report on the Charity’s activities;
 - 9.9.3 appoint reporting accountants or auditors for the Charity.
- 9.10 A general meeting may be called by the Trustees at any time and must be called within 21 days of a written request from one or more Trustees (being Members), at least 10% of the Membership or (where no general meeting has been held within the last year) at least 5% of the Membership.
- 9.11 A technical defect in the appointment of a Member of which the Members are unaware at the time does not invalidate a decision taken at a general meeting or a Written Resolution.

10 Limited Liability

The liability of Members is limited.

11 Guarantee

Every Member promises, if the Charity is dissolved while he / she remains a Member or within one year after he / she ceases to be a member, to pay up to £1 towards:

- 11.1 payment of those debts and liabilities of the Charity incurred before he / she ceased to be a Member;
- 11.2 payment of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up; and
- 11.3 the adjustment of rights of contributors among themselves.

12 Communications

12.1 Notices and other documents to be served on Members or Trustees under the Articles or the Companies Act may be served:

- 12.1.1 by hand;
- 12.1.2 by post;
- 12.1.3 by suitable electronic means; or
- 12.1.4 through publication in the Charity's newsletter or on the Charity's website.

12.2 The only address at which a Member is entitled to receive notices sent by post is an address in the U.K. shown in the Register of Members.

12.3 Any notice given in accordance with these Articles is to be treated for all purposes as having been received:

- 12.3.1 24 hours after being sent by electronic means, posted on the Charity's website or delivered by hand to the relevant address;
- 12.3.2 two clear days after being sent by first class post to that address;
- 12.3.3 three clear days after being sent by second class or overseas post to that address;
- 12.3.4 immediately on being handed to the recipient personally; or, if earlier,
- 12.3.5 as soon as the recipient acknowledges actual receipt.

12.4 A technical defect in service of which the Trustees are unaware at the time does not invalidate decisions taken at a meeting.

13 Dissolution

13.1 If the Charity is dissolved, the assets (if any) remaining after providing for all its liabilities must be applied in one or more of the following ways:

- 13.1.1 by transfer to one or more other bodies established for exclusively charitable purposes within, the same as or similar to the Objects;

- 13.1.2 directly for the Objects or for charitable purposes which are within or similar to the Objects;
- 13.1.3 in such other manner consistent with charitable status as the Commission approves in writing in advance.

- 13.2 A final report and statement of account must be sent to the Commission.
- 13.3 This provision may be amended by special resolution but only with the prior written consent of the Commission.

14 Interpretation

- 14.1 The Articles are to be interpreted without reference to the model articles under the Companies Act, which do not apply to the Charity.

- 14.2 In the Articles, unless the context indicates another meaning:
